HARVEST LUNCH:

Sincere thanks to Judith Rowe, David

Rowe and Emma Morris for an amazing harvest lunch that they organised on behalf of both All Saints and St Godwald's last Sunday in All Saints Church Hall. Almost 50 people enjoyed a beautifully prepared ploughman's lunch followed by fruit and hot drinks, accompanied by much conversation and fellowship. It was wonderful to celebrate together again in a way we haven't been able to for the past 18 months. The preceding harvest auction raised over £150 for Christian Aid!

On Saturday 23 October at 4pm at St Godwald's, we will be holding a Service of Thanksgiving for Children. We would like to invite the baptism families and other friends to St Godwald's Church Hall for refreshments after the Service, and it would be great if we might have some volunteers to set the Hall up with tables and chairs, and prepare tea, coffee, juice, and nibbles while the Service is in progress. If you might be able to help with this, please let David or Richard know.

AUTUMN MADNESS by Judith Rowe

It is that time of year again with 12 weeks left to go Christmas madness has to start before we're locked in by the snow
So just to get you going just read the headline news Petrol is being rationed get behind those 2-mile queues
And has an extra bonus food is likely to run out So, get your turkeys and mince pies, cos that is what Christmas is about
That Christmas actually means the birth of Jesus our dear Lord
But for so many people the true meaning is ignored
It's all about a spending spree and to hell with the expense Grocery trolleys are not big enough, it just does not make much sense
We need to get a turkey and a boiling ham as well
And a Blackpool show of lighting and a reindeer with a bell
And that only just for starters what about a Christmas tree
They are in short supply as well; can we dig one up for free
The Holly and the Mistletoe we need some round the door
And then those Santa footsteps to go along the floor
We must get a bigger telly for us all to sit around Just get the Credit card out this one's just £2000 pound Now what about the children, they all need a new iPad
And a laptop and new phone we do not want them feeling sad
New trainers also on the list, wait a while but not to late Because the time they get to put them on they will be out of date
Now back to grocery shopping, remember to get bread
As many types as you can get artisan, they call it that's what my neighbour said

Cheese is also on my list ten varieties that should do Granddad only eats the one that smells I think it's blue
I know that Granddad won't be here but get it you never know Someone else might like it, put it on the table just for show
The shops will all be closed because it's Christmas Day We might run out of something and then what will we say "For a change let us go to Church" and remember that this day Is all about a little child who in a stable all forlorn
"Hark the Herald Angels Sing Jesus Christ is born."
